Mike Cookmeyer shows off the August Art show at 700 Club by Jenny Kolbel in New Orleans. Paintings are from her fun “Berries” collection inspired by Mardi Gras beads. “I love them and so does New Orleans!” the artist says. Visit Flip4Art.COM for more on this talented artist.

Mike joins manager Cory in a duet for Cafe Lafitte's in Exile's weekly Karaoke blowout in New Orleans. Held every Wednesday, you clap "if they're good" or clap "when it's over". That's the tag line here and the winner always get a fab prize.

OMG! Was it Poncho or Chris who perfumed the air for Bean Night at Cutter's? You can catch this unlikely duo at shift change every Monday for Bean & Rice night, which starts at 4pm, hosted by this popular club in the Marigny area of New Orleans.

Krewe of Mwindo Ball Lieutenant Arnold James, King Mwindo X Laurin and president Ernest Dorsey welcome fellow krewes, members and guest to the krewe's Meet & Greet blowout hosted in the Marigny Theatre in New Orleans. Mwindo's Bal Masque XL will be held at Laborers Union Hall on Saturday, January 31, 2009.

Manager Joe Trotta welcomes the New Orleans community every Wednesday for Meat Night at Rawhide 2010. It's a “bring your own meat” affair with the bar supplying the potato and salad. Regulars from time to time bring in their own special creations like last week's red velvet cake from Wood Enterprises' own Ken Grandpre and scalloped potatoes from Ron.

Southern Decadence Sponsor Glazer Company's Michael Schlenker, representing the “official” liquors of Southern Decadence including Kettle One Vodka, Maker's Mark Whiskey, Crown Royal, Cruzan Coconut Rum and Cactus Juice Burst, joins Good Friends manager Joey Almagro on Dirty Linen Night in New Orleans at Good Friends Bar.
