Rawhide Manager Joe Trotta proudly holds the Top Service award presented by the Zagat Survey at Commander's Palace in New Orleans. Out of all of the night clubs and bars in New Orleans, Rawhide 2010 was voted the Top Service award, an incredible feat. Based on responses from 3,637 New Orleans area residents, the survey includes 390 restaurants, 94 night clubs and bars, 29 tourist attractions and 18 leading hotel reviews. Rawhide is one of the clubs produced by Wood Enterprises. Visit Rawhide2010.COM for more on this popular Leather club.

Renowned photographer Steven Forster is joined by King Cake Queen XIV of Gay Mardi Gras Princesse Stephanie for the opening of Moments in Time: New Orleans at the Crossroads launched at the New Orleans Academy of Fine Arts, 5256 Magazine Street in New Orleans with another opening on January 27, 6-9pm, running through the end of February. It will then travel to the Jazz Festival in Tarragona, Spain for a month at two venues. After this, plans are in the works to continue exhibiting the exhibition throughout Europe for the rest of the spring and summer 2007 and then toward a tour in the United States in 2008 at universities and other venues.

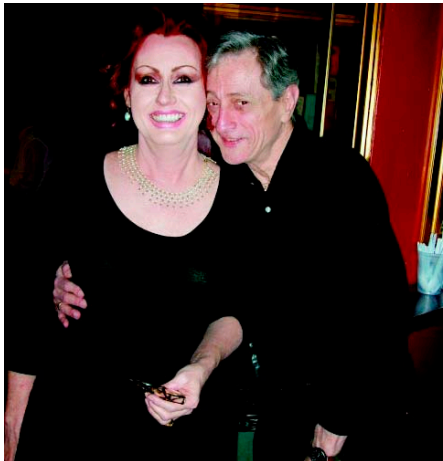

The Mystic Krewe of Satyricon's 5th annual 12th Night Ball was hosted at the beautifully refurbished Country Club in New Orleans bringing some 100 revelers out to launch Carnival season. After a drawing of names in attendance, Tracy Hendrix was crowned King 12th Night and Gigi Zachau was crowned Queen and were vested with magnificent sashes created by Ty Johnson. Following the selection of the King and Queen 12th Night, who will be special honored guests at the Krewe's fifth annual Mardi Gras ball on Sunday, February 11, at the Sugar Mill, 1101 Convention Center Boulevard, the new King and Queen Satyricon V were presented. Tony Leggio is King Satyricon V and Hoyle Byrd is Queen Satyricon V. They were both vested with ornate sashes created by Queen Satyricon I Becky Allen. Their Bal Masque theme, Satyricon Plays With Toys, was also announced. Music was supplied by the attractive ex-Marine Nolan Webster; complimentary champagne was poured in honor of both the new royalty and the coming Carnival season. The excellent buffet was catered by Mojo Lounge on Decatur St. and featured pulled pork sandwiches, crab and chicken cakes, assorted salads, fruits and cheeses, hors d'oeuvres, and assorted king cakes. Blanche Debris joins Oz Bar Baron Johnny Chisholm, Bianca Del Rio and Emerald City's Ted McCrary for the triumphant return of the Bingo Bitches back at the helm of Oz's popular Drag Bingo Fridays and Sundays in New Orleans on world famous Bourbon Street. Chisholm is pulling out all of the stops with his "Don't fk with us fellas. This isn't our first time at the rodeo. The Bitches Are Back!" bingo campaign. Del Rio will fly in from New York every Friday through Mardi Gras and beyond to host Drag Bingo with Debris 6-8pm. Debris will do the honors every Sunday 5:30-7:30pm. For more on Dance and Show Club of the Year, visit OzNewOrleans.COM.

Austin Bar Baron's Larry Davis and Randy Speights welcomed revelers to their popular club, Oilcan Harry's New Year's Eve in downtown Austin, Texas. The club celebrates it's 17th anniversary January 25-28 with several events and specials for its many patrons.

Southern Decadence Grand Marshal XXXI Rusty LaRoux hosts Lucille's 60th birthday celebration at Big Daddy's in New Orleans with some of her famous gumbo and of course, birthday cake.

Lester Perkins joins director Glenn Meche and Shep Field for the reopening night of To Do Productions' Take Me Out which was brought back by popular demand playing at the Marigny Theatre in New Orleans. The reopening night benefited the Louisiana State Gay Rodeo Association and this production concludes January 19-21, Friday and Saturday at 8pm and Sunday at 6pm. Call 504.948.9608 or 504.218.8559 for tickets and information.
