drag 101

SD Down, Halloween Next

Well, "Hello again," my little drags and dragsters, and "Thank God," Southern Decadence is over. It was my first one you know, and I thought I was too old to be a "virgin" at anything anymore, but let me tell you it always feels good, when it's the first time! And as in real life, I felt my way around the situation and it was both frightening and titillating and quite arousing at the same time. It almost made me feel like a young girl again, I think. I don't remember that far back, as it was just before the Stone Age, I think !?!

I will say one thing, that it was quite a busy calendar of events, and I can say that some of you must have read my last column, as I saw a lot of the "girls" all decked out and with pantyhose on too. And even some of the "showgirls" went all the way with hips and body stockings and everything, it brought a tear to my eye. Then there are always a few that will not give in and just go out, hairy legs and all, not to mention hairy arms and backs. (Can you spell - NAIR). But, I guess in this situation, being that it's supposed to be Decadence, you get to go with the flow, this time. Guess I'll have to let it slip for this and for Halloween, but only for those two events, after that there is no excuse. Do you hear me???

After my last column came out, I am happy to say that apparently, one of the leading publications must have been snooping, and they also wrote about the very same thing that I had taken you all to task about. So if you happened to read Woman's World, you can get at any drugstore or grocery, the September 14 edi-
