a real live wire guy, and Tim was a sweetie. Big Dick and Trixxie were working the door, and Raymond and Karen were dishing out the music. David and Ken gave a fabulous party at their home in Spanish Town, and everyone really enjoyed it. The Louisiana Power Exchange Association was going strong, and I believe there must have been 50 friends mentioned in this year-end column. In fact, I ran into one, namely Tom, while delivering Ambush this week. I hadn't seen him for awhile, but he and other half Don were living in Atlanta when I knew them so long ago. And I mentioned Raquel who I predicted would someday be Miss Gay America, but I also noted all my Lords of Leather friends, those at Oz (Johnny, Cy, and Tommy), chef/hostess Jay, King Cake Queen Stephanie, and, of course, Rip and Marsha and so many, many more.

1998: Time came for the closing of the Blue Parrot with a big blowout put on my Don and Tom. Greg was one of the bartenders as was Delman at this time with George working security at this Oklahoma Street bar. Oh, the great times I had there. Bogart's had a big Metropolitan Community Church bash, and James and Kyle had Sondra and Michelle performing for them. Marie wanted everyone to know she was a free woman and looking for connections at the Hide-A-Way, and DJ Darlene was spinning the records. George, Obry, and Jim had big plans for Evolution. Kevin was doing a lot of work at the Capitol, and Damon was pleased to have the autographed picture from Keanu. Bill and Dean were on the scene, and Big Dick was taking a lot of printing orders. (He still does – take print orders.) I also ran into two Mr. Butt Beautifuls from 1998 and 1999, and one showed me his new apparatus. Don't you just love apparatuses?

1997: Sam was the Apollo king-elect, and his co-workers gave him a fabulous party. There was a big Krewe of Hedon party this year, and lots of friends were in attendance. I recall Debbie being there but minus Claudette who was sick. Josie and Effie came with her. Stephanie, a former queen of the Krewe of Hedon, was very beautiful and looked so elegant in that black gown. Damon and Tommy represented the Krewe of Apollo, and Leonard was the rep for the Krewe of Sparta. There was a fundraiser at the Mirror Lounge for Bettina Sheets. Entertainment was by Marilyn Mills, Mariah Holiday, Sashincie, Yvette LeVeaux, Effie Marie, Alicia Summers, Stephanie Holiday, Rob Johnson, George Knight, Onnie, the Rev. Don Clarke, Courtney O'Neal, and Veronica Monrey. Kyle and Brian were operating Mystik Treasurers as well as the Mystik Coffee Shop on Government Street. Naiad Press of Florida was going strong as a major publisher of books by lesbian authors. They were strong supporters of Hibiscus Bookstore in the early years. Allan's FM Bookstore in New Orleans was also a wonderful place to be at any time of the year and was also supported by Naiad. I also told you about Mary Bess, a very beautiful human being.

And Time Moves On

Well, it's time to move on to what is going on in December of 2008, but I do hope you enjoyed a little look through past Decembers. They were glorious years, full of fun, full of sadness, but always full of great friendships. These continue today, and some have grown so much stronger over the years. We've lost many of our friends, but we have also gained a lot of new ones, so life goes on.

Once again, the Christmas season will be filled with wonderful parties at all the bars and in private homes. In fact, as I write this column, I'm looking forward to a big one tonight – well, a big party anyway.

When I delivered Ambush this week, I had to smile when I got to Splash. Corey was there painting his
