Out Names the 100 Greatest, Gayest Albums of All Time

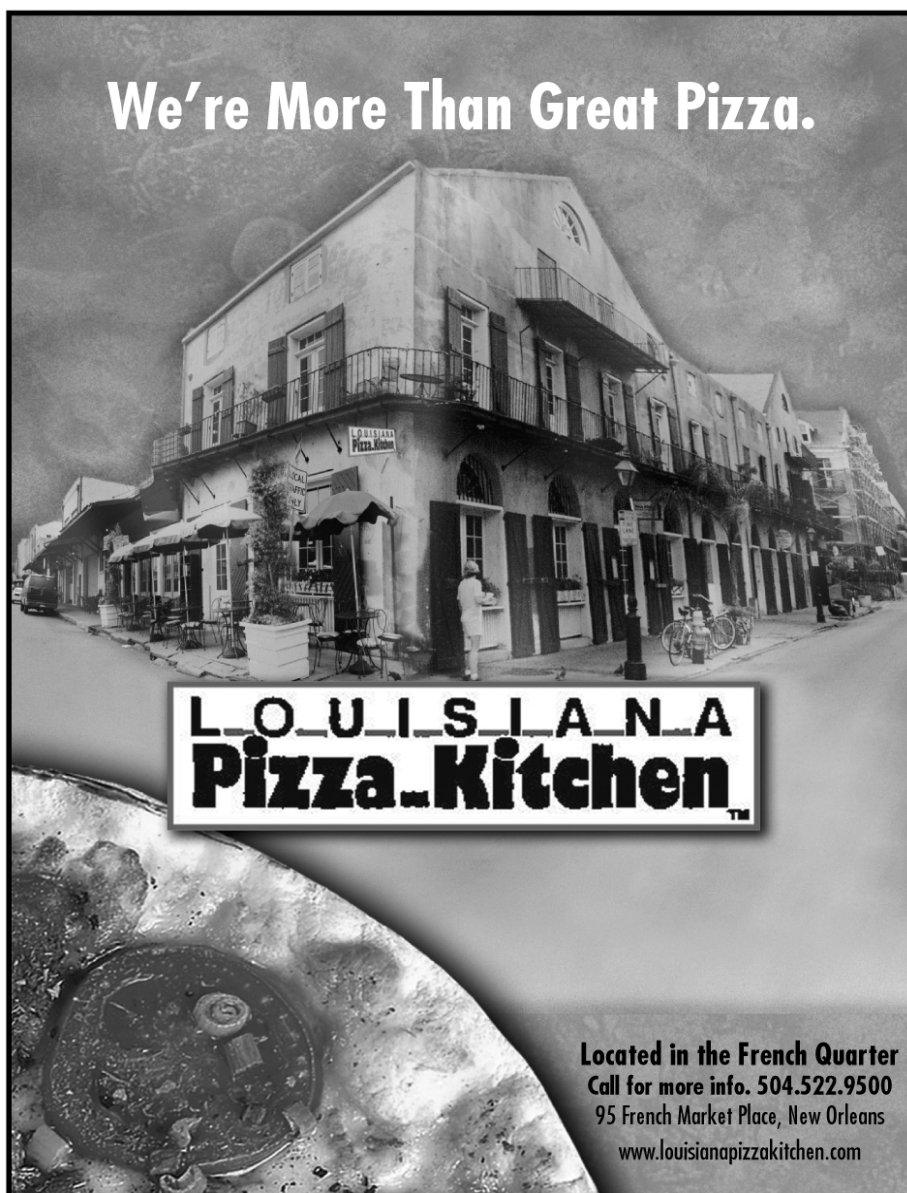

Choosing the greatest and gayest albums of all time is no easy task. Curtailing a brawl at Out magazine's editorial headquarters, the magazine turned to 100 celebrities - including Boy George, Cyndi Lauper, and Rufus Wainwright - each of whom weighed in with the 10 albums that changed their lives.

With selections as diverse as the community itself, Out magazine proudly presents "Out's 100 Greatest, Gayest Albums (of All Time)." Readers will no doubt have opinions on the selections and mention some titles they feel should have been included. That's why in addition to this extensive list, Out is offering readers a chance to win the top 20 albums on the list! Simply leave a comment about the story stating a choice for "The Greatest, Gayest Album (of All Time)" and why that album is tops.

All entries must be in by midnight on December 25, 2009. Five random entries will be selected, and each winner will receive all 20 albums.

Find the complete list of the "100 Greatest, Gayest Albums (of All Time)" at www.out.com.

BPM Hotels Expansion Boasts Largest Gay Owned & Operated Hotel Complex in New Orleans

The newly renovated New Orleans Courtyard Hotel joins French Quarter Suites Hotel as local hotelier Blake Miller completes expansion of the two properties making them the largest gay owned and operated hotel complex in New Orleans under the direction of BPM Hotels. Miller purchased New Orleans Courtyard Hotel, formerly French Quarter Courtyard, when the previous owner lost the property to foreclosure. Many in the gay community may remember this site was the brain child of the late Jerry Menefee who opened Menefee's, his elaborate and ornate nightclub complex here. It later became The Monster, another nightclub complex before converting to a hotel.

Through the purchase, Miller was able to double the size of his operation overnight bringing in 52 more rooms to his complex of multi-bedroom suites, luxury townhouses and cottages, all on the N. Rampart Street corridor adjacent to the French Quarter. It is just steps away from Armstrong Park, Bourbon Street and most of the popular clubs, bars, restaurants and delis in this historic neighborhood. Even though the two hotels will maintain separate names, guests will have greater access to move freely between their courtyards, pools and common areas.

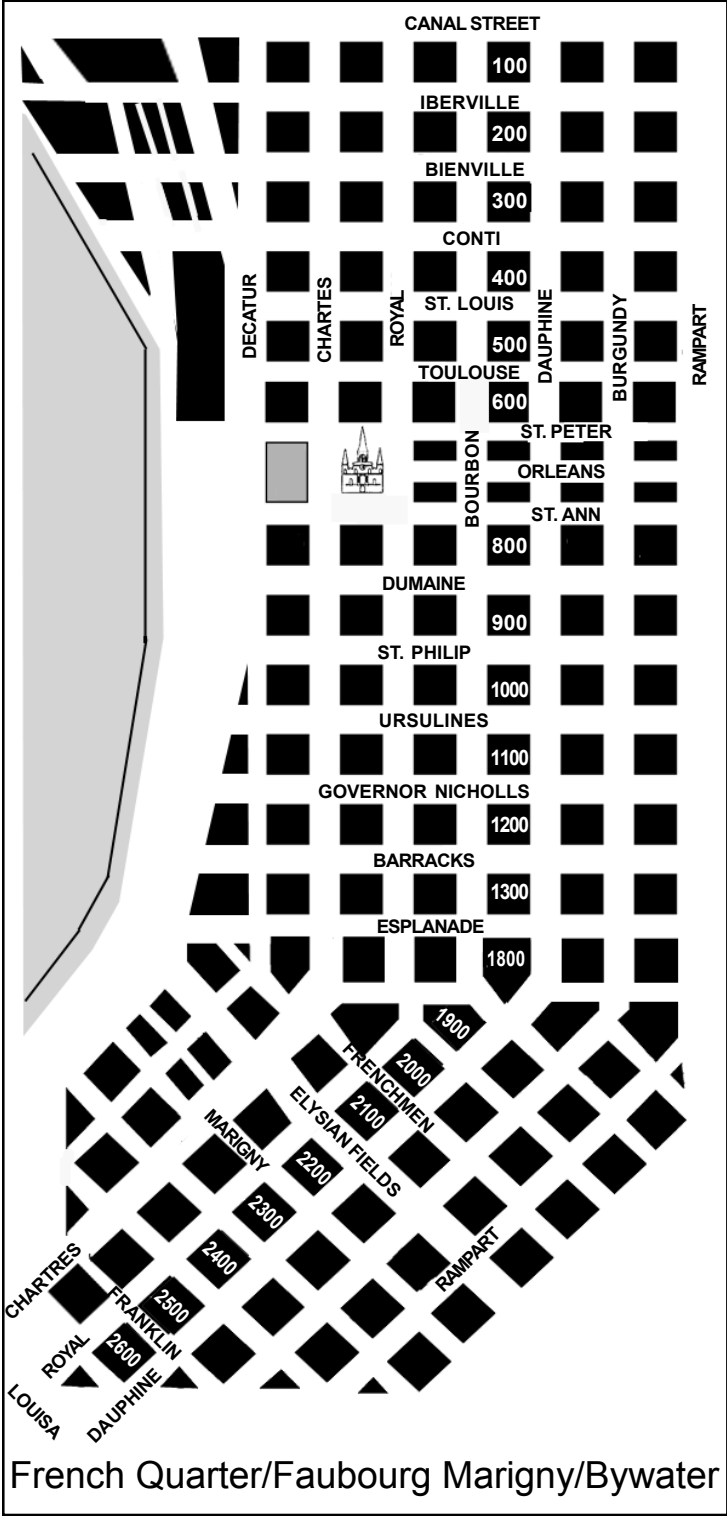

Miller has developed a niche market appealing to travelers from nearby cities and states who are looking for an affordable opportunity to enjoy the French Quarter, with many being repeat customers year after year.

To make reservations, the particulars of each hotel appears below.
